

5:48

BB

Bill >

And I still love Chief Ben. His answer to the last question was brilliant. Deputy commissioner Duheme was also very good.

on the question of how long the Ontario order is in effect, I have found the following in a CBC news story so that probably means until at least next weekend (Feb 26 or 27). I will see if I can track down a more official source (i.e., news release from Premier or SolGen):

Ford signed the state of emergency order late Friday. It now has to be ratified by cabinet within 72 hours and will be in effect for 14 days.

Do we have any update on the border protest in BC.

Good afternoon,

Please be advised that the Pacific Highway POE has been closed due to protest activity. The RCMP has closed the north and southbound highway (intersection of 176th and 8th Ave) access to the POE. USCBP has been notified and will be diverting northbound traffic to

iMessage

